

Be a part of India's Biggest Youth Centric Cultural movement

About Us

We are a team of students from IIT Delhi who are working towards making the youth step out of their shells and make their dreams happen.

Today when a student steps out of his/her town or state for higher education he/ she finds a major difficulty in adjusting to the new surroundings. This is mainly because they were never given a chance to open up before. This not only lowers their confidence and academic performance but also changes their outlook towards life to a negative one by sending them deep down in the abyss of depression and loneliness. Looking at the needs of such students, we thought of organizing such events at district level of each state starting from the state of Bihar.

Hence, introducing:

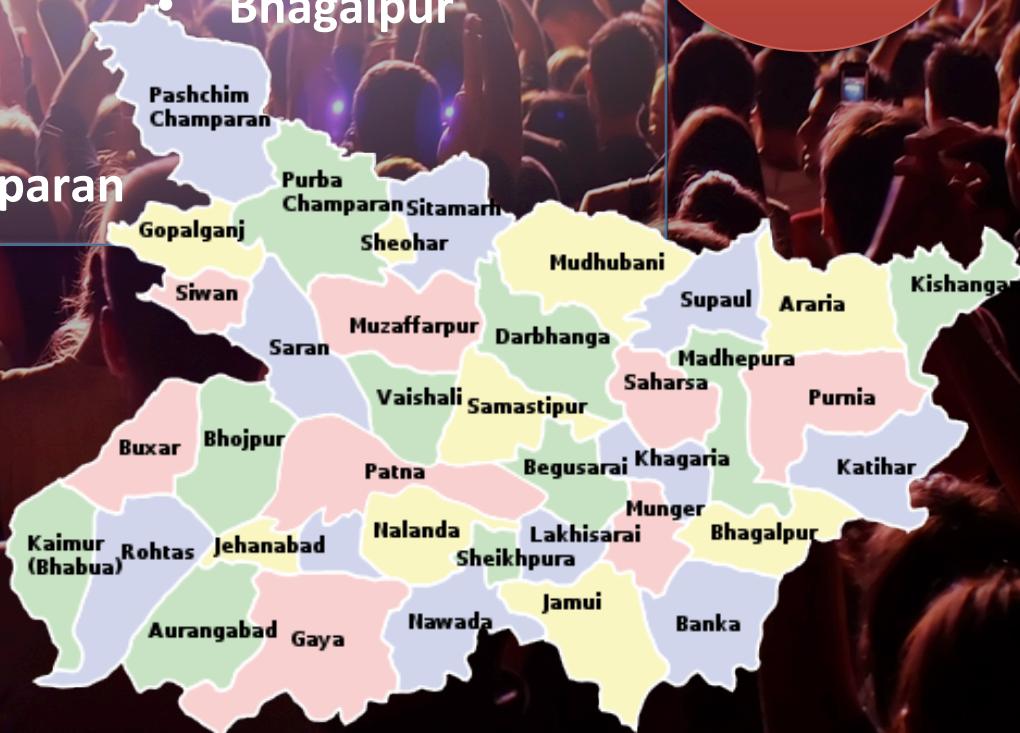

India's biggest cultural movement begins from the land of Bihar. Schools from 38 districts of Bihar are taking part in the inter school cultural events, followed by two semi-final and a final event in Patna-the capital city of Bihar, spread over a period of 12 days.

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a large, energetic crowd at a concert or festival. The stage is visible in the distance, illuminated by bright purple and white lights. The foreground is filled with the dark silhouettes of many people's heads, all facing towards the stage. A large, semi-transparent gray rectangular box covers the middle portion of the image, containing the promotional text.
